

TWH COLLECTIBLES ANNOUNCES CATERPILLAR LICENSE AND DEBUTS THREE NEW MINING SCALE MODELS

June 19, 2012

Manitowoc, Wisconsin, USA - TWH Collectibles is pleased to announce that it is now an official licensee of Caterpillar® Inc and is releasing its first Cat® mining diecast models.

"We are very excited that TWH has the opportunity to partner with a world-class manufacturer such as Caterpillar," says John Hemken, Owner and CEO of TWH Collectibles. "Both replicas are going to be highly collectible models, given that they are the first releases of their respective lines with limited availability this fall."

TWH's first Cat models will be the Cat 7495 and Cat 7495 HF rope shovels and the Cat 8750 Dragline, all in 1:50 scale.

Both the electric Rope Shovels and the Dragline will be available in the Fall of 2012. The shovels are limited in production to 400 units each with MRSP of $900. The draglines are limited to a production run of 25 units with MRSP of $12,000.

As with all TWH Collectibles models, each model is crafted with the highest attention to detail, quality, and industry-leading features and functions.
